

HUJAMBO!

Hello from AMAZING AFRICA,

I am writing to you from UGANDA!

Yesterday I met a cat called Afiya. Afiya is a lot like me, except her tail is much longer, her paws are much bigger, and she is extremely tall... Can you guess why that is?

That's right! Afiya is a LIONESS!

Afiya said that she would give me a tour of Uganda, so I jumped onto her back and off we went!

We saw forests and waterfalls, cities and rivers. My favourite thing was when Afiya introduced me to her wild friends - elephants, monkeys and another big cat in a lovely coat - a cheetah!

What kind of animal would you like to meet? Please can you draw me a picture?

Afiya says she promises to teach me how to roar like a lion if I teach her how to write letters like a magical cat. I can't wait!

Your pal,

BANJO ROBINSON
