

--- FROM THE PAWS OF BANJO ROBINSON - GLOBAL EXPLORER! ---

HELLO

Dear

Have you ever had a postcard from a penguin? Or a delivery from a dormouse?

Guess what? This letter comes from a CAT!

My name is Banjo Robinson, and I'm a MAGICAL cat who travels the world having adventures - and sending mail to awesome children like you!

Right now, I am exploring the United Kingdom on a flying bicycle. I use my back legs for pedalling and my front legs for steering. I'm not sure what to do with my tail... so I usually use it to wave at the people I pass. They always wave back!

Please can you draw me a picture of the place you live? Then you can ask your teacher to pop it under their desk and one of my animal friends will collect it and deliver it to me! I can't wait to hear from you!

Your furry friend,

BANJO ROBINSON
