

-- FROM THE PAWS OF BANJO ROBINSON - GLOBAL EXPLORER! --

BULA!

Dear

I am writing to you from a beach in Fiji.

The sunshine is warming my whiskers and the waves are lapping at my paws. I feel warm and fuzzy - inside and out!

I spent the morning with a colourful lory bird called Lara.

'Come and see the rest of my country!' she cheeped.

'But I don't want to budge,' I replied snoozily. 'Lazing on this sand is making me SO happy!'

'Banjo,' said Lara kindly, 'the world is FULL of amazing places to explore. You mustn't be afraid to try new things!' And you know what? I think she's right!

Being a globetrotting cat means having ALL kinds of adventures - and sharing them with you of course!

Where in the world would YOU like to go? Please send me a picture!

Thank you for being my friends,

BANJO ROBINSON

PS

